National Storytelling Week

Sunday 27th January to
Sunday 3rd February

National Storytelling Week

This is now in its 19th year. The event was created to increase awareness of the art, practice and value of oral storytelling. It is held during the first week of February every year.

In school:

- On Friday 1st February teachers and support staff will hold a storytelling session. Children may choose which story they listen to.

- Children to bring story books / props / puppets etc into school for playtime and lunchtime.

They can use the props and puppets to act out their stories on the yard.

National Storytelling Week

At home:

- We hope parents will either read or tell stories at home - make it interesting by adding some drama with actions and different voices
- Bedtimes stories are a favourite
- Watch people and make a story up about them - child/ren could do this too.

Get Caught Reading

This is our ongoing challenge - take photos of your children reading in unusual places - tweet them to us so we can add them to our Wall of Fame!
