

Wow! Wow! Wow!

The Premier League Trophy came to St Finbar's on 13th March as part of the prize for winning a National Poetry competition.

Hurray for St Finbar's!

We hope you managed to watch the BBC NW coverage – the children were fabulous!

Lots of photographs of our winning children and the celebration assembly can be viewed using the following link and password.

I am so proud of St Finbar's and all of our children who made such a good impression on our visitors. They thought our school was wonderful, and SO DO I - we are AMAZING!

Our visitors took a special photograph of Mrs Conley – “wearing” the premier cup crown!

Read the winning poem by Year 1 children.

Being Different

By Nabila, Lary, Jacob, Amy, Benyamin, Thomas and Khadija

I cover up my hair but you shouldn't stare at me.
I have lovely hair and I'm as proud as I can be.

I speak another language but you shouldn't laugh at me.
I can be your good friend - come and play with me!

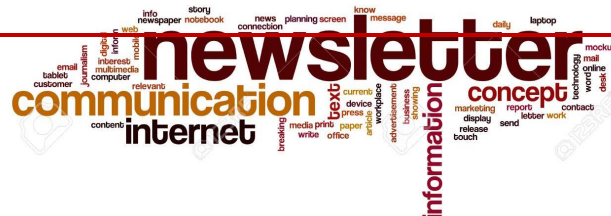

I find walking hard but you shouldn't throw me out -
I will get stronger and then I can run about.

I find spelling tricky but you shouldn't huff and puff.
I will not give up even if it is tough.

I sometimes get worried but you shouldn't point at me.
If you help me, I'll be the best that I can be!
